

ARKAROODLA WILDERNESS SANCTUARY

From the ARK Update 22/12/09

THE MOTHER-OF-ALL DISCLAIMERS!

Did you notice the small print on page nineteen of Seeking a Balance, Conservation and resource use in the Northern Flinders Ranges? You didn't! Funny about that. It WAS the only page in the whole document without a stunning image or colourful map. It also featured the smallest font for any text passage in the document. So just to ensure that you understand how confident the Department for Environment and Heritage is about the integrity of its own work, we thought you had better read the small print. We've made it a bit easier for you and increased the font size.
